
Directorate of Public Policy
Security and Defence Forum Newsletter

Bulletin du Forum sur la sécurité et la défense
Direction de la politique officielle

Number 10 February / March 2006

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Message from the Director ____ 1

Call for Papers Events and Conferences ____ 2

Events and Conferences ____ 2

SDF Award Recipients ____ 2

RMC: Tenure-Track Position ____ 3

UNB: Deputy Director Position ____ 4

CANCAPS Conference in Ottawa ____ 5

Your SDF: Andrew Iarocci ____ 6

CDAI: 22nd Annual Seminar ____ 6

Your SDF: The Museum of the Regiments Library, University of Calgary ____ 7

Candidate Debate at Dalhousie ____ 7

Your SDF: Ph.D. Students at the Centre for Security and Defence Studies ____ 8

Recent and Upcoming Publications ____ 8

Message from the Director

This is a busy time of the year and many interesting events and conferences are scheduled for the next few months.

It was a real pleasure meeting this year's SDF scholarship recipients while visiting Ottawa on 13 December 2005. I also enjoyed meeting many young scholars during the series of briefings in mid-February.

We hope to release the results of SDF Centre of Expertise and Chair of Defence Management Studies competitions soon.

Aaron Hywarren
Director Public Policy

Call for Papers

7th Canadian Conference on Ethical Leadership
Ethical Behavior in an Environment of Chaos and Complexity
28-29 November 2006 at the
Royal Military College of Canada

DUE DATE FOR SUBMISSIONS: 30 March 2006
More information will be available on the Conference site at http://www.rmc.ca/

The Directorate of Public Policy prepares the SDF Newsletter every two months. We welcome your comments by e-mail to SDF-FSD@forces.gc.ca. The SDF Newsletter contains links to third party sites. We provide these links as a service and convenience. The Department of National Defence takes no responsibility for the content of third-party sites and a link to them in no way implies an endorsement or recommendation of the products, services or information found there.

Events and Conferences

New Website
The Centre for Military and Strategic Studies at the University of Calgary has launched an enhanced website. It is available at: www.cmss.ucalgary.ca.

1 February 2006
The Dalhousie Centre for Foreign Policy Studies Seminar Series invited Alphonso Motta-Allen, Mexican Navy (Ret'd) and Phd Candidate, Dalhousie University, to discuss Mexico and Peacekeeping: Can Mexico Respond to International Security Crises? Please visit:
http://centreforforeignpolicystudies.dal.ca/eventsmarsec.php.

1-3 February 2006
The Political Studies students at the University of Manitoba hosted their 22nd annual conference in Winnipeg. This year's topic was The State of the State: New Challenges in the 21st Century. For more information, visit:
http://www.umanitoba.ca/centres/defence/pssc.html.

2 February 2006
The Dalhousie Centre for Foreign Policy Studies Seminar Series presented From Belgrade to Baghdad: How the Uncorrected Media Lies about the Balkans led to the U.S. Fiasco in Iraq, with Scott Taylor, Esprit de Corps Military Magazine, journalist and author. Please visit:
http://centreforforeignpolicystudies.dal.ca/eventsmarsec.php.

2 February 2006
The Right Honourable Beverley McLachlin, Chief Justice of Canada, and Deans Bruce Feldthusen and Nathalie Des Rosiers of the Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa, hosted the second annual Brian Dickson Memorial Lecture entitled The Role of International Criminal Justice in the 21st Century, which was presented by Justice Richard J. Goldstone at the University of Ottawa. The lecture was followed by a reception in the Tsampalieros Atrium of Fauteux Hall. For more information, contact Danielle Latreille at dlatreil@uottawa.ca or (613) 562-5800, ext. 3297.

2 February 2006
Jonathan Adelman, Professor at the Graduate School of International Studies, University of Denver, spoke at the University of Calgary. The event was co-sponsored with the Israeli Canadian Students' Association. Contact Nancy Pearson Mackie, (403) 220-4030, njmackie@ucalgary.ca for more information.

SDF Award Recipients

On 13 December 2005, the Directorate of Public Policy organized a Defence Policy Dialogue with this year's SDF post-doctoral, doctoral, master levels and internship award winners. The Defence Policy Dialogue took place in the boardroom of the Cartier Square Drill Hall, Ottawa.

Thirteen out of the fifteen award winners attended the event. The intent of the day was three-fold: to brief them on DND in particular, and Canadian security and defence more broadly; to hear their views on salient Canadian defence issues; and, to give the SDF award winners the opportunity to meet. In fact, this was the first occasion in recent memory where all of the SDF Award Winners have met.

Fourteen defence officials provided presentations, lead round-table discussions, and engaged in more informal conversation with the participants.

2 February 2006
At « Les jeudis du GERSI » Julien Vadnais and Hughes Pouliot, graduate students at the Université de Montréal, were invited to talk about The American Missile Defence Shield: Why Did Canada Refuse to Participate? and Civil Police Force and Interstate Conflicts: Towards a Strategy of Deployment, at the Université de Montréal, Pavillon Lionel-Groulx. For more information, visit: http://www.gersi.umontreal.ca/.

2-3 February 2006
The York Centre for International and Security Studies held its Thirteenth Annual Conference, entitled Exceptional Measures for Exceptional Times: The State of Security Post 9/11. For more information, please contact Sarah Whitaker at sarahw@yorku.ca.

3 February 2006
Several members of the Groupe d'étude et de recherche sur la sécurité internationale along with ten students from the Université de Montréal visited Bell Helicopter Textron Canada at Mirabel. For more information, visit: http://www.gersi.umontreal.ca/.

3 February 2006
The fifteenth Annual Symposium on the Conflict Resolution at the Centre for Conflict Education and Research took place at Carleton University. Please visit: http://www.carleton.ca/law/conflict/symposium.htm for further information.

3 February 2006
The Institute of European and Russian Studies and the Centre for European Studies at Carleton University presented Minister Robert Vanderloo, Deputy Ambassador at the Canadian Embassy in Berlin on A Canadian in Berlin - Reflections on a Foreign Service Career and a Bilateral Relationship. For more information please contact Piotr Dutkiewicz at (613) 520-5628 or at piotr_dutkiewicz@carleton.ca or Ginette Lafleur at ginette_lafleur@carleton.ca.

3 February 2006
The University of New Brunswick hosted Dr. Yossi Olmert for a presentation on the current state of the Middle East Peace Process. The event was held in Tilley Hall. Dr. Olmert served as the Director of the Israeli Government Press Office, Advisor to Prime Minister Yitzchak Shamir and Defense Minister Moshe Arens, and holds a PhD from the London School of Economics in Middle East History and headed the Syria and Lebanon desks at Tel Aviv University's Faculty of Middle East Studies. For further information, contact lwindsor@unb.ca.

Royal Military College of Canada
Tenure-Track Position

The Department of Defence Studies of the Royal Military College of Canada invites applications for tenure track positions at the assistant professor level. The Department of Defence Studies is located at the Canadian Forces College in Toronto and is responsible for the academic aspects of the programmes at the College. Interested candidates should forward their curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching ability, a summary of research interests, sample publications and names of three references to:

Doris Meade
Civilian Human Resources Office (Kingston)
Canadian Forces Base Kingston
P.O. Box 17000, Stn 'Forces'
Kingston, ON
K7K 7B4
Fax: (63) 541-4496
E-mail: Meade.DM@forces.gc.ca

You may consult the Canadian Information Centre for International Credentials at http://www.cmec.ca/cicic/ for further information.

7 February 2006
Professor Marc Milner from the University of New Brunswick presented the Annual Leadership Lecture at the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington VA. His lecture topic was Fleet Admiral Ernie King: the Anglo-Canadian View. For further information, please contact: lwindsor@unb.ca.

8 February 2006
The Centre for Foreign Policy Studies Seminar Series presented Military Transformations: Types, Consequences and Canada, with Dr Peter Foot, Director of Academics and Senior Academic Advisor to the Commandant, Canadian Forces College. Please visit: http://centreforforeignpolicystudies.dal.ca/eventsmarsec.php.

9 February 2006
Pierre Palhavi (post-doctoral researcher at the Centre d'étude et de recherche internationale de l'Université de Montréal) spoke on public diplomacy at the Université de Montréal, Pavillon Lionel-Groulx, room C-4145, 11h30-13h00. Contact REGIS at gersi@umontreal.ca for more information.

9 February 2006
The Centre of International Relations at the University of British Columbia invited Dr. Kal Holsti to discuss "Exceptionalism in American Foreign Policy: Is it Exceptional?" For information, contact Beatrice Gill at beatrice.gill@ubc.ca.

10 February 2006
The Munk Centre, University of Toronto, ran a CANCAPS Human Security Working Group Roundtable entitled Emerging Issues, Debates and New Human Security Challenges in Asia. Please visit: http://webapp.mcis.utoronto.ca/default.aspx.

10 February 2006
Professor Marc Milner from the University of New Brunswick presented a paper entitled Saving Private Ryan - and his Friends: Canadians Defeat the German Armoured Assaults at Normandy, 7-10 June 1944, at the New York Military Affairs Symposium, City University of New York. For further information, contact lwindsor@unb.ca.

10-11 February 2006
The Laurier Centre for Military Strategic and Disarmament Studies invited J.L. Granatstein to discuss "the future of the Reserves." For more information, please see: http://info.wlu.ca/~wwwmsds/upcoming.

10-11 February 2006
The Society for Military and Strategic Studies, University of Calgary, held the 8th Annual Student Conference entitled Perspectives on War: From Conflict to Resolution. The keynotes were Daniele Riggio of the Public Policy Division, NATO, and Dr. Hrach Gregorian, President of the Institute of World Affairs. Contact Nancy Pearson Mackie at (403) 220-4030 or at njmackie@ucalgary.ca for information.

10-11 February 2006
The Society for Military and Strategic Studies at the University of Calgary held their conference entitled Perspectives on War: From Conflict to Resolution. Visit: http://homepage.ucalgary.ca/~bclill/SMSS/Historic/conference8.htm for more information.

14 February 2006
Sandrine Perrot (post-doctoral researcher at the Centre d'étude et de recherche internationale) spoke on Pax Africana : Powers and armed interventionism in South Sahara at the Université de Montréal, Pavillon Lionel-Groulx, room C-4145, 11h30-13h00. Contact REGIS at: gersi@umontreal.ca for more information.

15 February 2006
Fifteen students from the Centre for Defence and Security Studies at the University of Manitoba, along with thirty students from the McGill University, Carleton University and Queen's University, visited NDHQ for a one-day briefing on Canadian defence and security issues.

16 February 2006
The Commanding Officer of HMCS Montréal, Commander Paul Dempsey (Dalhousie Political Science graduate, BA 2002) hosted a day-at-sea for Dalhousie faculty, undergraduates and graduate students. The ship's web site is: http://www.navy.dnd.ca/montreal/

Deputy Director Position

Centre for the Study of War and Society
University of New Brunswick

The Centre for the Study of War and Society (CSWS) is seeking a Deputy Director. As of 1 May 2006 the CSWS will have a unique three part mandate: to become Canada's academic centre of excellence for the study of war as a phenomena; to become the academic centre of excellence for the study of the modern Canadian army; and, to foster local, national and international awareness of the military heritage of the province of New Brunswick. Closing date for applications is 31 March 2006; appointment effective by mutual agreement, but not later than 01 July 2006. Please send CV, sample of publications, statement of research interests and three letters of reference to:

Marc Milner
Director, Centre for Conflict Studies
University of New Brunswick
P.O. Box 4400
Fredericton, NB, E3B 5A3
E-mail milner@unb.ca

UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK
UNB

16 February 2006
The University of New Brunswick's Military and Strategic Studies Program held its Winter Public Lecture. In recognition of the 250th Anniversary of the Acadian deportations in the Maritimes, UNB invited Yale University Professor John Mack Faragher to speak about his new book A Great and Noble Scheme: Thoughts on the Expulsion of the Acadians. Professor Faragher teaches the history of the American West and directs the Howard R. Lamar Center for the Study of Frontiers and Borders. For further information, contact lwindsor@unb.ca.

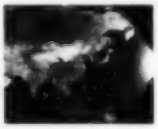
16 February 2006
The Centre for Environmental and Information Technology, University of Waterloo, invited Terry Copp of Wilfrid Laurier University, to present The Infantry's War: Normandy to the Rhine. For further information, please visit: http://www.uwaterloo.ca/map/map.html.

17 February 2006
Ciné-GERSI screened the movie The Charge of the Light Brigade, followed by a discussion with Michel Fortmann, professor of political science and Director of REGIS at the Université de Montréal. The event took place at the Université de Montréal, Pavillon Jean-Brillant, 13h00-16h00. Contact REGIS at: gersi@umontreal.ca for information.

Conference in Ottawa

Canadian Consortium on Asia Pacific Security

Consortium canadien sur la sécurité en Asie-Pacifique



The 13th Annual Canadian Consortium on Asia Pacific Security (CANCAPS) Conference, titled Asia in Search of Identity and Security was held 2-4 December 2005 in Ottawa. More than one hundred participants from the academic, governmental and NGO communities attended this two-day conference to explore new security dimensions in the Asia Pacific. A panel was devoted to the Canadian International Policy Statement and another to the CF deployment in Afghanistan.

From left to right: Brigadier-General Walter Semianiw, Patrice Pagé, Executive Director of Doctors Without Borders, Richard Arbeiter, Foreign Affairs, Elliott Tepper, Carleton University and Marc Lanteigne, McGill University.

17 February 2006
Col Pat Stogran (Commander, Canadian Forces Joint Operations Group) spoke on "Canada's Experience in Afghanistan (Operation Apollo/Enduring Freedom): A Canadian Commander's Perspective & the Role of the Joint Operations Group" at the Centre for Foreign Policy Studies at Dalhousie University. For further information, see: http://centreforforeignpolicystudies.dal.ca.

17 February 2006
Forty-five graduate students from Université Laval, Université de Montréal and Université du Québec à Montréal visited NDHQ for a one-day briefing about Canadian defence and security issues.

21 February 2006
In cooperation with the St. Lawrence Forum, the York Centre for International and Security Studies will host a Public Outreach Forum entitled Canada's War on Terror, Increasing Security or Fostering Low-rise Democracy? The forum will take place at the Jane Mallet Theatre in Toronto. Contact Sarah Whitaker at sarahw@yorku.ca for further information.

21 February 2006
The Canadian Association of Defence and Security Industries (CADSI) Annual Winter Warm-up Reception will be held at the National War museum. Please visit: https://www.defenceandsecurity.ca.

22-23 February 2006
Carleton University will hold a Model NATO Conference in Ottawa. For more information, contact Katia Neouimina, Project Coordinator at: eneouimi@connect.carleton.ca.

22-25 February 2006
University of New Brunswick's Centre for Conflict Studies is partnering with Carleton University for this year's Model NATO Conference in Ottawa. UNB terrorism specialist Professor David Charters and Lee Windsor are coordinating the Conference's Crisis Team and Home Government Offices. Prof. Charters brings with him years of experience running crisis simulations for the Canadian Forces, RCMP and various levels of government. UNB is also entering a student delegation representing Italy. For further information, contact lwindsor@unb.ca.

22-25 February 2006
The UBC International Relations Students Association will participate to a National Model NATO Conference in Washington, D.C. For information, contact mnato@irsa.ca.

24 February 2006
4th Colloque du GERSI's: last day to submit communications' submissions. Contact the REGIS at gersi@umontreal.ca.

24 February 2006
The Centre for Foreign Policy Studies, Dalhousie University will conduct a one-day discussion and workshop on current Canadian defence policy. The aim is to bring together select members of the academic and institutional defence community in Canada to discuss longer-term factors likely to influence the course of Canadian defence and security policy over the next 20-25 years. Contact centre@dal.ca for more information.

24-25 February 2006
The Centre for Defence and Security Studies at the University of Manitoba, along with the Department of Sociology, is hosting a conference entitled Global Violence and Global Justice. The conference will take place at the Fort Garry Hotel in Winnipeg and is open to the public. For further information, contact Pat Kruchak at cdssum@cc.umanitoba.ca.

28 February - 3 March 2006
Commander Bob Edwards (Dalhousie Centre Defence Fellow) and Glen Herbert (Fisheries and Oceans Canada and a Centre Research Fellow) will act as 'subject-matter-experts' for the week-long "Maritime Strategy Case Study" for naval students of the Command and Staff Course at the Canadian Forces College (Toronto). The case study will open with a presentation on the topic of maritime strategy and integrated maritime compliance and enforcement and will assist the officers to prepare for a debate on Does Canada have a Maritime Strategy? on the final day. For information, contact Cdr Bob Edwards, Defence Fellow Dalhousie University at redwards@dal.ca.

March 2006 (Date TBC)
The Dalhousie Centre for Foreign Policy Studies Seminar Series presents Blood Diamonds in Africa, with Dr Andrew Grant, Centre for International and Comparative Studies, Northwestern University (Evanston, Illinois). Please visit: http://centreforforeignpolicystudies.dal.ca/eventsmarsec.php

1-4 March 2006
The United Nations Association in Canada will hold a Model United Nation Conference in Ottawa. For information, visit: www.canimun.org.

6 March 2006
Julian Schofield (Concordia University) will speak on the Indo-Pakistani conflict at the Université de Montréal, Pavillon Jean-Brillant, room B-2325, 13h00-14h30. For information, contact REGIS at: gersi@umontreal.ca

Your SDF: Andrew Iarocci

Andrew Iarocci completed his MA and PhD in history at Wilfrid Laurier University between 2000 and 2005. As an R.B. Byers Postdoctoral Fellow for the Security and Defence Forum, he is currently expanding the scope of his research to encompass Canadian operations throughout 1915. The study focuses on training, the integration of reinforcements, offensive and defensive tactics, allied interoperability, leadership and the impact of technology on the battlefield. He will be submitting his manuscript for publication later in 2006.

NATO in Transition: The Impact on Canada

Conference of Defence Associations Institute
22nd Annual Seminar

February 23, 2006

Château Laurier Hotel, Ottawa

Featuring (among others):

The Minister of National Defence (Invited)
General Lance Smith, NATO Supreme Allied Commander Transformation
General Ray Henault, Chairman NATO Military Committee
General (Ret'd) Klaus Naumann, Former Chairman NATO Military Committee

For more information and to register, please see http://www.cda-cdai.ca/AGM_Agenda.htm
or contact us at 359 Kent Street, Suite 502, Ottawa, K2P 0R7
Tel (613) 236-9903 or e-mail projectofficer@cda-cdai.ca

BOMBARDIER BOEING GENERAL DYNAMICS Canada
National Defence Défense nationale
Queens IRPP

8 March 2006
The Centre for Security and Defence Studies at Carleton University is presenting "The Necessary Americanisation of Canada's Military" by Peter Haydon, Senior Research Fellow, Dalhousie University. See: http://www.carleton.ca/csds/ for more information.

8 March 2006
Major Steven Desjardins (Canadian Forces) will talk about Military Intelligence in Canada at the Université de Montréal, Pavillon Jean-Brillant, C-4145, 11h30-13h00. Contact the REGIS at gersi@umontreal.ca for more information.

9-10 March 2006
The Carleton Centre for Security and Defence Studies Annual Conference After the Fall: Theory and Practice of Post-Intervention Security will take place at Lord Elgin Hotel in Ottawa. This conference will bring together scholars, students and practitioners to discuss the short-term security challenges that follow military interventions into foreign states. Information is available at: www.carleton.ca/csds/conference06.html

9-10 March 2006
The Canadian Institute of International Affairs, Vancouver, presents "Building Global Prosperity: New Challenges, New Directions." For more information, visit: http://www.ciia.org/fpc2006.htm

Candidate Debate at Dalhousie University

On 18 January 2006, the Centre for Foreign Policy Studies and the Dalhousie Graduate Society of Political Science hosted a successful debate on Canadian foreign affairs and defence issues with candidates of the Halifax Riding in the Canadian Federal Election. Close to 200 graduate and undergraduate students, and members of the general public attended the event. Questions during the first hour of the two-hour debate were developed by the graduate students and covered three topics: Canada-U.S. relations, multilateralism and UN reform, and development and foreign aid.

10 March 2006
The Department of Political Science at McMaster University, in collaboration with the Centre for International is Security Studies at York University, are holding a workshop entitled Producing Security. The workshop will take place at McMaster University. Contact Sarah Whitaker at sarahw@yorku.ca for further information.

Your SDF: The Museum of the Regiments Library University of Calgary

The Museum of the Regiments Library & Archives collects all aspects of military history and strategic studies, with emphasis on Canada. The Archival collections consist of letters, photographs, scrapbooks, taped interviews and other original source material relating to military history. There are major fonds relating to the Canadian Women's Army Corps, Prisoners of War, military historians and the Aboriginal Veterans' Archives. Each of the four founding Regiments of the Museum also has its own archival holdings.

For more information, visit:
http://library.ucalgary.ca/branches/museumoftheregiments/

14 March 2006
Brian Flemming, CM, QC, DCL, Canadian policy advisor, writer and international lawyer and member of the Advisory Council on National Security will talk about Flying Naked: Dispatches from the War on Terror? at the Calgary Chamber of Commerce. This event is co-sponsored with the Calgary Chamber of Commerce and the Van Horne Institute at the University of Calgary. For information, contact Nancy Pearson Mackie at (403) 220-4030 or at njmackie@ucalgary.ca

14 March 2006
The Dalhousie Centre for Foreign Policy Studies at Dalhousie University presents "New age NATO." Susan Pond, Head of the NATO Partnership for Peace Policy Group is invited to speak. For more information, please visit: http://centreforforeignpolicystudies.dal.ca/seminarseries.php.

15 March 2006
The Centre for Foreign Policy Studies Seminar Series presents Parliamentary Oversight of the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS) with Susan Pollak, Executive Director, Security and Intelligence Review Committee. Please visit: http://centreforforeignpolicystudies.dal.ca/eventsmarsec.php.

15 March 2006
The Dalhousie Centre for Foreign Policy Studies, with the support of the Royal United Services Institute of Nova Scotia, will conduct a one-day symposium devoted to an examination and discussion of the theoretical and practical aspects of the current and projected defence and security environment in Nova Scotia. For further information, please contact Alex Morrison at (902) 420-0913 or at sandym@mail.com

16 March 2006
The Churchill Society of Calgary invited Drs. Bercuson and Herwig to discuss their new book, One Christmas in Washington. Contact Nancy Pearson Mackie at njmackie@ucalgary.ca

17 March 2006
Alain Deletroz (Vice-President (Europe), International Crisis Group) will talk about Crisis Management an International Security. The location is to be confirmed. Contact REGIS at: gersi@umontreal.ca

24-25 March 2006
The First Annual Graduate Student Symposium entitled Revolution or Evolution? Emerging Security Threats in the 21st Century will be held at Dalhousie University and the Lord Nelson Hotel in Halifax. For information on the symposium, visit: http://centreforforeignpolicystudies.dal.ca/gradsymposium2005.php

31 March 2006
The York Centre for International and Security Studies will host The Aesthetics of (In) Security: A Workshop on Security, Knowledge and Art conference. For more information, contact Abhinava Kumar at abhinava@yorku.ca

Carleton UNIVERSITY
Canada's Capital University

Your SDF: PhD Students
Centre for Security and Defence Studies

Name	Research Interests
Trista Grant	The evolution of specialized training for peacekeeping in the Canadian Forces from the 1950s to the present
Rachel Lea Heide	Civil-military relations, leadership, and organizational culture in the Royal Canadian Air Force during the 1930s, 1940s, and 1950s
Philippe Lagassé	Canada-US defence relations at the dawn of the Cold War, 1945-1953

Recent and Upcoming Publications

Boivin, Marc-André, « Is the West losing Afghanistan?», Chroniques du GERSI 2 :1 (Nov 2005).

Joya, Angela, Theorizing Post-Cold War US Imperial Strategies in the Middle East: Integrating the Region into the Capitalist World Market. Toronto: York Centre for International and Security Studies Working paper. Number 37. December 2005. For more information, contact the YCISS at sarahw@yorku.ca.

Kenkel, Kai Michael, "Civil society participation in defence policy formulation: academic experts and South Africa's post-apartheid Defence White Paper." Journal of Security Sector Management (to appear). Contact Nancy Pearson Mackie at (403) 220-4030 or at njmackie@ucalgary.ca for information.

Kenkel, Kai Michael, "The modernization of Brazilian security policy, 1994-2005" In Franz Kernic and Walter Feichtinger, eds. Transatlantic relations in transition: security policy aspects of the relationship between the EU and Latin America. Baden-Baden: Nomos Contact Nancy Pearson Mackie at njmackie@ucalgary.ca.

The Winter 2005/06 Journal of Military and Strategic Studies is available at www.jmss.org.

Vandemoortele, Antoine, "Outsourcing its future: The OSCE and the panel of eminent persons", Chroniques du GERSI 2: 2 (Dec 2005).